TS Galaxy coach Esau Mtsweni targets Chiefs scalp in Knockout Cup

New mentor backs young squad to step up on the big stage against Amakhosi

TS Galaxy caretaker coach Esau Mtsweni sees the Carling Knockout Cup soccer showdown with Kaizer Chiefs as a golden chance for his team to make their mark in the tourna-

The match will be played on Tuesday at the FNB Stadium in Johannesburg (7pm).

Mtsweni highlighted the importance of the upcoming battle, urging Galaxy to embrace a winning mindset to seize the moment to keep their cup dreams alive.

The 46-year-old coach has stepped in as caretaker for the Rockets senior team after Bernard Parker's departure.

"Obviously this is a turning point for us," Mtsweni said.

"We have to go there and win the game because that would create opportunities for us."

The coach believes the timing of his opportunity to lead the team is ideal, insisting that coaches must always be prepared to step up when called upon.

"As a coach, you must always be ready. I think this opportunity came at the perfect time, and I'm hopeful that we can make the most of it," he said.

Mtsweni expressed confidence in the club's young talent, singling out Seluleko Mahlambi as a player with considerable potential.

"Mahlambi is a very good player for us and I see a bright future for him," he said.

"It is not only about him but also the other young players on the team.

"We have some talented players, and I believe they have a lot of potential."

With Galaxy continuing to work towards their broader ambitions, Mtsweni believes the team has promising players capable of contributing to its progress. For the coach, the challenge will be to turn that potential into results, with the Carling Knockout Cup offering Galaxy an opportunity to make their mark against one of South African soccer's biggest clubs.

Last season, the Rockets beat Orbit College 1-0 to book themselves a spot in the semifinals, where they played against Golden Arrows. Unfortunately, their journey in the cup competition ended at that stage, losing 2-1. This time Galaxy have shifted their sights to reaching the final.

Other fixtures are:

Saturday, 3pm: Golden Arrows v Chippa United (King Zwelithini Stadium); 6pm: Polokwane City v Siwelele FC (Old Peter Mokaba Stadium)
Sunday, 3pm: Kruger United v Amazulu FC (Mbombela Stadium); 6pm: Sekhukune United v Richards Bay (New Peter Mokaba Stadium)
Tuesday, 7pm: Mamelodi Sundowns v Marumo Gallants (Loftus Stadium), Kaizer Chiefs v TS Galaxy (FNB Stadium), Orlando Pirates v Milford FC (Orlando Amstel Arena)
Wednesday, 7pm: Durban City v Stellenbosch (Chatsworth Stadium)

Bayern set for Arsenal test without red-hot Olise

Uefa Champions League hopefuls Bayern Munich are set for an early test of their title credentials when they host English soccer champions Arsenal on Wednesday without in-form winger Michael Olise.

The London-born Olise, who started in Arsenal's junior system, is suspended after picking up two yellow cards inside a minute in Bayern's 3-3 draw with Viking last week.

After seeing a first yellow for a foul, a clearly frustrated Olise responded to some verbal provocation from Viking captain Zlatko Tripic by throwing the ball at his head to be sent off for the first time in his career.

After being thrust into Ballon d'Or contention due to last season's stellar showing, the former Crystal Palace winger has continued his excellent form this campaign.

Olise has nine goals and five assists from 10 games in all competitions for Bayern.

With Jamal Musiala struggling with injury and illness, and both Serge Gnabry and Lennart Karl well off their best form, Olise and the ever-reliable Harry Kane have shouldered Bayern's attacking burden so far this season.

The England captain has nine goals and six assists in 10 games. With Bayern 2-0 down away at Viking last week, Kane almost single-handedly engineered a comeback, scoring twice and setting up another.

Speaking after Bayern's ruthless 6-1 victory over RB Leipzig in the Bundesliga on Saturday, Kane said Bayern would miss Olise but called on the rest of their star-studded squad to step up.

"Missing one of your biggest players, you're going to feel it for sure, but that's where other people have to step up and show they can take their opportunity," Kane said.

"We talk about being ready for your moment and whoever plays will have to be ready."

One of the many positives to come out of Saturday's thumping win over Leipzig was the performance of Luis Diaz.

The 29-year-old had cut a frustrated figure after a poor start to the season but scored three goals and set up another in one of his best performances since moving from Liverpool in 2025.

Despite swopping north London for the Bavarian capital back in 2023, former Tottenham captain Kane has seen plenty of Arsenal since joining Bayern.

Bayern faced the Gunners in two quarterfinal legs in 2023/24, progressing by just a goal, but were outclassed in a 5-1 defeat in the league phase of last year's competition.

With domestic and international matches coming thick and fast, Kane has not had time to exchange pleasantries with any of his Gunners rivals.

"I spoke to them a bit in the international break previously and we knew the game was coming up, but I think we're all too busy right now to text each other, with a game every three days," he explained.

Saturday's thrashing of Leipzig once again showed the perennial German champions are a cut above their domestic rivals and Kane said Bayern were relishing a chance to take on Mikel Arteta's side. — AFP
